Eastern Illinois University
2017 Celebration of Scholarship,
Creativity and Engagement

Wednesday, October 25, 2017
University Ballroom
3:30 pm - 5:00 pm

Scholarship, creativity, innovation, and the many forms of collaborative engagement that shape faculty life and student learning are central to the mission of Eastern Illinois University. For that reason, our faculty, department chairs, college deans, the Provost, and the entire campus community celebrate the achievements and outstanding contributions of our colleagues and students to their disciplines and professions every year. And, as the following pages illustrate, faculty engaged in continuing scholarly and creative activities that have provided outstanding mentoring experiences for our undergraduate and graduate students.

In addition to recognizing faculty performances, shows, publications, grants and other professional efforts, the University will recognize the recipients of the Edwin L. “Bud” May award and Dean’s Award for Excellence in Summer Research & Creative Activity, Cynthia W. Rich and Anna L. Cromwell, respectively. We congratulate Drs. Rich and Cromwell, as well as each and every member of EIU’s community who has contributed to our shared mission and sustained commitment to academic excellence.

2017 - 2018 Recipient of the Edwin L. “Bud” May Award

Dr. Cynthia W. Rich, College of Education and Professional Studies

Dr. Cindy Rich began her career at EIU as a faculty member in 1995 and in 2004 became director of the An Adventure of the American Mind program of the Library of Congress within the EIU College of Education and Professional Studies. What was originally an eighteen-month federal program continues today. In 2007 the program was revised and renamed Teaching with Primary Sources (TPS) and TPS EIU became part of the Library of Congress' TPS Educational Consortium.

The mission of the Library of Congress Teaching with Primary Sources (TPS) program is to build awareness of the Library's educational initiatives; provide content that promotes the effective educational use of the Library's resources; and offer access to and promote sustained use of the Library's educational resources. The Library achieves this mission through collaborations between the Library and the K-12 educational community across the United States. The program contributes to the quality of education by helping teachers use the Library's digitized primary sources to engage students, develop their critical thinking skills and construct knowledge. Members of the TPS Educational Consortium assist in the design of the TPS program and offer TPS professional development on an ongoing basis, year round.

Dr. Rich has provided TPS EIU programming for thousands of teachers through hundreds of workshops and presentations at the local, state and national level and was invited to present a session on supporting disciplinary literacy using primary sources for the Library's first online conference for teachers. In addition to collaborating with amazing schools and teachers in east central Illinois, Cindy has partnered to develop materials and programming on the EIU campus and sites such as the Illinois Holocaust Museum and Education Center, Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library and Museum, Illinois State Museum and others.

Dr. Rich grew up southern Illinois and has a BS in Language Arts from SIUC, a MA in Reading from Murray State University, is a proud EIU alumnus with an EdS in Education Administration and earned a PhD in Education Leadership, Administration and Foundations from Indiana State University.

2017 Dean's Award of Excellence in Summer Research and Creative Activity

Dr. Anna L. Cromwell, Music Department

Anna Cromwell is Associate Professor of Violin and Viola at EIU. Dr. Cromwell can be heard performing in Duo XXI with cellist Dr. Mira Frisch on two CDs released by Albany Records: Quest: New Music for Violin and Cello, and Metal Cicadas. As an avid teacher and lecturer, Dr. Cromwell has given numerous presentations at the Music Teachers National Association Conference, the American String Teachers Association National Conference, and the Illinois Music Educators State Conference. In addition, Dr. Cromwell's articles have appeared in the NCASTA online journal and the Illinois ASTA journal The Scroll. She teaches applied lessons, music classes, and serves as the Graduate Coordinator in the music department.
